Underwood's rise to fame came after he won the fourth season of American Idol in 2005, throwing the singer to country music fame. After the win and the subsequent Live Tour of Idols, Underwood released his first single Inside Your Heaven debuted at Number 1 on the Billboard Hot 100, the only country single of the decade to do so. The singer's debut maintained the same appeal, Some Heart released in 2005 2005 more than 300,000 copies in their first week, stayed on the list for more than two years and finally certified platinum seven more times. As a result, the singer became highly acclaimed and received an intimidatingly high number of coveted awards, including Single Record of the Year for Jesus, Take the Wheel from the Country Music Academy, a Gospel Music Association Dove Award and five trophies courtesy of the Billboard Music Awards among many others. In 2007 the singer was still releasing singles from her debut album, including Wasted and after a pair of Grammy wins the same year she released her second release Carnival Ride in October 2007. Carnival Ride, which debuted at No. 1, produced the four hit singles So Small, All American Girl, Last Name and Just A Dream. Underwood Play On's third studio effort took the singer into a much more entrenched position of composition, co-writing seven of the album's songs, including lead single Blown Away. The album was released in early 2012. It was produced by long-term collaborator Mark Bright and presented the singles Temporary Home and Undo It. Despite the singer's modest launch show, Underwood has won a significant number of awards, including inductions at the Grand Ole Opry in 2008 and the Oklahoma Music Hall of Fame, winning six Grammy Awards, sixteen Billboard Music Awards, 11 Academy of Country Music Awards and eight American Music Awards.
